93 PTS – ROBERT PARKER'S WINE ADVOCATE

The 2008 Qualia Pavo Syrah is a cooler, firmer wine...a vivid spine of tannin and minerality that supports gorgeous varietal notes, including hints of black fruits, game, plums, licorice and scorched earth...wines are beautiful and well worth seeking out.

92 PTS – THE RHONE REPORT

A beautiful wine, the 2008 Pavo Estate Syrah sports fantastic aromatics of blackberries, underbrush, flowers, and spices that are all grounded by edgy, clean underlying minerality. Fairly dense and compact...the wine is medium bodied with a seamless, silky texture, racy acidity, and a firm...Well done.
